Biography

Mr. David Marlow is a transformational global finance executive who has driven impact across multiple corporations and in various roles—audit, finance, transformation, mergers and acquisitions (M&A), and operations. He is a financial expert and chartered accountant who began his career in the audit field.

Mr. Marlow has delivered significant business value through diversity and inclusion excellence and talent development. He has strengthened the finance pipeline of talent, capabilities, and culture by pioneering the design and implementation of people development and mentorship frameworks, diversity and inclusion, and culture programs.

Prior to joining the Mastercard Foundation, Mr. Marlow held various executive roles at Bristol-Myers Squibb, including VP of Finance at Mead Johnson Nutritionals, SVP of Finance Operations, and SVP Company Transformation Lead, where he led teams across finance, commercial, manufacturing, research and development, and M&A.

Mr. Marlow was Global Divisional Controller at Philips Medical Systems and has previous audit experience with KPMG in Germany and South Africa.

Mr. Marlow is a Chartered Accountant with honor's and bachelor's degrees from the University of the Witwatersrand (1989) and Stellenbosch University (1986) in South Africa and is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants.

Mr. Marlow is a member of the Board of Trustees at the Pennington School in New Jersey, where he also chairs the Audit Committee. He previously served on the Board of Trustees for the Liberty Science Center, also in New Jersey.
