Biography

Mr. Thomas E. Menighan is Executive Vice President and CEO of APhA, the oldest, largest, and most diverse pharmacists organization in America. In that role, he serves the APhA leadership and the pharmacy profession.

In addition to serving as Chair of the Pharmacy Technician Certification Board, Mr. Menighan serves as an elected Bureau member of the International Pharmaceutical Federation, Chair of the Center for Pharmacy Practice Accreditation, and board member of Pharmacy Quality Solutions. Mr. Menighan has served in volunteer roles within the profession of pharmacy, including as President of APhA in 2001–2002 and as a member of the APhA Board of Trustees between 1995 and 2003. He was a senior staff member of APhA from 1987 to 1992. As Senior Director of External Affairs, he managed state affairs, public relations, new business development, and practice management issues.

He received his B.S. degree in pharmacy from the West Virginia University School of Pharmacy, an M.B.A. from Averett College, and honorary Sc.D. degrees from West Virginia University and the University of Charleston. Mr. Menighan was a 20-year Medicine Shoppe owner and remains today as the founding partner in Pharmacy Associates, Inc., DBA CompreCare, a multistate home infusion and specialty pharmacy focused on medication-assisted therapy that serves patients across the United States.

Previously, Mr. Menighan managed the PharMark Corporation, creator of RationalMed, the drug utilization system used by millions of state Medicaid enrollees. He founded SymRx, Inc., developer of CornerDrugstore.com, and SynTegra Solutions, Inc., a consulting firm focused on supply chain security for worldwide distribution and manufacturing clients.

In his role as APhA CEO, Mr. Menighan has championed numerous collaborations with USP. Recently, USP and APhA partnered to offer sterile compounding prep courses for Board of Pharmacy Specialties Board Certification, and APhA voted to bring USP into the APhA House of Delegates.
